FROM THE DESK OF ORGANIZER

We have successfully concluded the first edition of International Police Expo, 2014. I Perceive, the event was a remarkable achievement on the part of Nexgen Exhibitions Pvt. Ltd. as we made a maiden attempt to organize an event for completely different industry. Being the first and only opportunity, the event attracted all enthusiasm from the Indian Police and other Paramilitary forces. And on the onset of my message, I would say that the record visitor's turnout to the exposition confirmed and assured International Police Expo as a true platform for Police and other forces. The next few pages of the post event report will substantiate the same.

While conceptualizing the International Police Expo, 2014 way back, the fundamental thought was to create an exclusive platform to showcase technology and products as well as to exchange the knowledge based on the requirements and technology trend. I believe, the objective directed the event to be a well framed success story, led by the support of exhibitors and visitors. One day conference also allowed the exchange of information for the technology being developed by them to the end users. Conference was attended by senior officers where assorted presentations were presented on various topics.

Stimulated by the success of 2014, we look forward to organize a much bigger show in 2015. Thanking you once again and looking forward for your patronage in the next edition of International Police Expo to be held at New Delhi, India.

Mr. V.K. Bansal
Director

POLICE is a vital arm of any country responsible for maintaining law and order in the country. It is the only force who is accountable to respond in a situation of crisis or any other crime. Every nation needs its forces to be upgraded with the latest equipments, technologies and gadgets to combat the situations. And it is quite evident that an Equipped and Healthy Police Force can protect in a better and efficient way. It is comprehensively agreed fact that Indian Police could do better job with an enormous bout of upgradation to make them more technology friendly. In a bid to show the way, Nexgen Exhibitions Pvt Ltd organized for the first time, the International Exhibition and conference for Police i.e. International Police Expo-2014 at Pragati Maidan. The two-day exhibition over the weekend included a day-long conference that saw eminent speakers from various sectors of the homeland security sector, surveillance, Forensics sharing their knowledge, information and technology.

The International Police Expo 2014 focused on everything about the police force, their welfare and fitness as well as showcased the latest equipment and technologies. It also gave inputs on technology for safety and protection of society, law enforcement, providing rescue to disaster-affected and all other necessities for their day-to-day operations.

The conference covered all segments viz. cyber security, communication and IT, law enforcement, surveillance, protection, fire, disaster and rescue management, training, forensic and investigation technology as well as traffic and logistics.

1ST INTERNATIONAL POLICE EXPO

The official opening of the India' first and only exhibition for Police and other Forces was done with all the stakeholders of Homeland Security and Safety i.e. Senior Police Officers, Industrialists and other dignitaries.

Two days exhibition was attended by various State Police Forces where a huge delegation from Uttar Pradesh Police, Tamil Nadu Police, CRPF, CISF, SSB, Uttar Pradesh ATS, ITBP, Traffic Police from various state Police, State PAC, Madhya Pradesh Police, Punjab Police, Nagaland Police, Meghalaya Police, Haryana Police, etc.

The exhibitors showcased various equipments and technology which were quite new and innovative. Few technologies like night vision, bullet proof helmets and vests, critical communication systems, fire vehicles, Wireless communication, Rescue, Riot control equipments, Forensics etc.

The exhibition was visited by the senior officials where few states send various officers of the respective area to explore the new technologies being displayed.

CONFERENCE

One day conference was integral part of the event where various indigenous presentations were made on various sectors focusing on UAV's, Ballistics, Mobile Forensics, Fire, Traffic, Rescue, Hologram Security, Forensics, communication etc. The theme of conference was "Safe and Secure Policing: Advancement & Challenges". The huge number of delegation attended the conference including the Senior Police Officers from various departments of CID, State Police, Security Officers of various Industrial Setups like Delhi Metro, Airport Authority etc.

The interactive Q&A session made the inputs meaningful and hence the conference was identified as crucial element of the event. Around 100 plus delegates attended the conference and marked it as a successful initiative for Police and other Forces.
